

FOR ALL STUDENTS OF DANCE, PERFORMANCE STUDIES AND THEATRE STUDIES

A very warm welcome to the Performing Arts Department. We would like to invite you to attend a Departmental Induction Day on Thursday 8th September 9.45am - 3pm, when you will meet the staff, see all the facilities, meet current students and look at examples of practical work. Please assemble in the College theatre for a 10am start.

All students of the department are asked to pay £120 for Dance, Performance Studies and/or Theatre Studies to cover the cost of trips to professional performances, practitioner workshops and texts in each year. Should financial circumstances make this difficult, please contact Linda Pike (Student Guidance Officer) at the College, who will explain all the possible methods of receiving assistance. All monies will be strictly accounted for and anything left over will be refunded at the end of the year.

 Please note that this is per course, i.e. if you do Performance Studies and Drama & Theatre Studies the cost will be £240. Please note also

Advance notice of some planned productions for the new term:

- To Avoid Precipice Cling to Rock – fresh from the Edinburgh Fringe – Wednesday 14th September 4.15-5.15pm (all attend)
- The Woman Who Cooked Her Husband – student production of Debbie Issitt's witty and physical take on marital bliss – early October
- I love You You're Perfect Now Change – late October – exciting new student-led production of hilarious sketch show
- The Seagull - Upper Sixth Theatre Studies production of Chekhov's beautiful play – early November
- Dance Showcase in November
- The main College Drama Enrichment Musical Production in December (title to be announced)

The title of the Christmas production will be announced on the Departmental Induction Day. Huge thanks to all will be auditioning in early July. If you are not able to be there you will be able to book an audition slot on the 8th. Look forward to seeing you then.

Yours,

Richard Fredman
Head of Performing Arts
